Pavis and Prax contain many powerful people. These people are normally of Rune Level in cults. The many Pavic/Praxian supplements describe or mention these Runelevels, but they are spread out and difficult to find.

What I have tried to do here is to bring together the descriptions of the various Runelevel NPCs in Pavis/Prax. I have tried to detail them very simply, in table form so that you can see which Runelevels are available in which area.

The tables consist of several columns:

Group - A political or locational grouping, so that several NPCs can be considered part of a group

Name - The name of the NPC

Level - The Runelevel of the NPC (I=Initiate, A=Acolyte, Shaman = Shaman, RP=Rune Priest, RL = Rune Lord, RLP = Rune Lord Priest)

Cult - The main, or primary, cult worshipped by the NPC. If the NPC worships more than one cult, it will be detailed in the Notes

Temple - The Temple where the NPC is based

Notes - Any further notes about the NPC

Where possible, I have used the RQ2 format for Runelevels, as this is easier to understand. I have used Acolyte rather than Associate Priest as this is better. Where NPCs are written up in HeroWars or HeroQuest, I have used RQ2 terminology, so I use RP or RL rather than Devotee. Where possible, I have used the same subcult as HeroQuest, so
